

Practice Quiz #14

Nomen: Answer Key

Datum: _____

Section 1: Grammar

1. Please conjugate the following verb in the future tense:

ambulo, ambulare, ambulavi - to walk

Person	Singular	Plural
1st	ambulabo	ambulabimus
2nd	ambulabis	ambulabitis
3rd	ambulabit	ambulabunt

2. Please conjugate the following verb in the future tense:

aperio, aperire, aperui - to open

Person	Singular	Plural
1st	aperiam	aperiemus
2nd	aperies	aperietis
3rd	aperiet	aperient

Please translate the following future tense Latin forms into proper English:

4. (recito, recitare, recitavi - to recite) recitabitis Y'all will recite

5. (nescio, nescire, nescivi - to deny) nesciet he/she/it will deny

6. (rego, regere, rexi - to rule) regent They will rule

7. (teneo, tenere, tenui - to hold) tenebo I will hold

8. Please conjugate and translate the following verb in the future tense:

sedeo, sedere, sedi - to sit

Person (Singular)	Latin	English
1st singular	sedebo	I will sit
2nd singular	sedebis	You will sit
3rd singular	sedebit	he/she/it will sit
Person (Plural)	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
1st plural	sedebimus	We will sit
2nd plural	sedebitis	y'all will sit
3rd plural	sedebunt	they will sit

Section 2: Vocabulary

For the following Latin forms, please give at least one correct English translation:

- ago, agere, egi: to drive
- paene: nearly
- medius, -a, -um: middle (of)
- continuo: immediately
- claudio, claudere, clausi: to shut

For the following English words, please give all the correct Latin forms:

- to open: aperio, aperire, aperui
- unwilling: invitus, -a, -um
- empty: vacuus, -a, -um
- sacred: sacer, sacra, sacrum
- everywhere: ubique

Section 3: Translation:

Please translate the following Latin sentences into idiomatic English:

1. In Romae moribus, hi pueri in ludo multas historias multamque scientiam discent; illae puellae domi¹ manebunt, atque coquere et mundare discent.

In The traditions of Rome, these boys will learn many stories and much knowledge in school; those girls will stay at home, and they will learn to cook and clean.

2. Ubi naves in portum² navigabunt, omnes viri ex illis navibus merces exonerabunt.

When the ships will sail into port, all the men will unload the merchandise out of ~~the ships~~ those ships.

3. "hodie hos discipulos novos in cameram ducemus; benivolentes³este!"

"Today we will lead these new students into the classroom; be nice!"

Vocabulary	Vocabulary
benivolens, benivolentis - kind, friendly, nice camera, -ae, f. - room, classroom coquo, coquere, coqui - to cook disco, discere, didici - to learn duco, ducere, duxi - to lead discipulus, -i, m. - student exonero, exonerare, exoneravi - to unload, historia, -ae, f. - story, history	hodie - today merx, mercis, f. - merchandise, trinket mos, moris, f. - custom, tradition, culture mundo, mundare, mundavi - to clean navis, navis, f. - ship, boat scientia, -ae, f. - science, knowledge

¹ domi: "at home"

² portum: "harbor" or "port"

³ este: "Be!"